10 Top January Leisure Offers, by ashleighbneysaver.co.uk

North East mum Ashleigh Swan is the founder of money saving website ashleighbneysaver.co.uk

This month Ashleigh has teamed up with Go North East to give you her best money saving advice and tips for something to do in the North East that won't break the bank.

Whether you are looking for a meal out with your partner or a fun filled day out with the kids, there are savings for everyone. With frequent bus services across the region it makes sense to leave the car at home and explore our wonderful region. You can follow Ashleigh on her Facebook page Ashleigh Money Saver for regular updates on savings.

So take a look at Ashleigh's top picks...

1. Newcastle Restaurant Week is a firm favourite with the people of the North East. You get a chance to go to a huge variety of restaurants across the city at a fraction of their usual menu prices. Perfect for a night out with friends or if you are looking to save money on date night.
