

May 02, 2016 02:18 BST

Magic Weekend at St James' Park – 21 & 22 May

St. James' Park will host a full round of Super League fixtures on Saturday 21 and Sunday 22 May and getting there couldn't be easier with us.

Magic Weekend was first held in Newcastle in 2015 and more than 67,000 fans were in attendance across the course of the weekend – the highest ever for the two-day event.

The home of Newcastle United will feature all 12 First Utility Super League teams with three games on each day. The fun doesn't stop there with activities for all including live music, face painters and a fanzone meaning your family and friends will be entertained for the whole weekend.

Magic Weekend brings a festival atmosphere to St James' Park as fans from all clubs mingle in the fan village before enjoying the action in the bowl.

Getting there

We run a wide range of frequent services to the heart of Newcastle City Centre, making your journey hassle free without the need of worrying about finding a parking space.

- View timetables

Getting home

We also have a great range of buses to get you home after the matches, including frequent journeys on Angel, Crusader, Fab 56, Red Arrows and many more.

- View timetables

Save money

We have some great deals and offers to help you get the best value for money on your bus travel.

- View our ticket guide

Event information

- Magic Weekend website