Spice Girls at the Stadium of Light – your handy travel guide

The Spice Girls arrive at Sunderland's Stadium of Light on Thursday 6 June and getting there couldn't be easier with us.

- Special X56 service running non-stop between Newcastle Central Station and the Stadium of Light.
- Frequent services from across the region to the Stadium of Light and extra buses after the concert to get you home.

You can even save money with our Spice Girls DaySaver Ticket which gives you unlimited travel on all Go North East buses on the day of the concert for only £6. Our Spice Girls DaySaver is only available on the Go North East app.

X56

Travelling to the Stadium of Light from Newcastle couldn't be easier with X56 – leaving from Bewick Street, opposite Newcastle Central Station and running non-stop to the Stadium of Light. Buses leave Newcastle at 3pm, 3.30pm, 4pm and then every 20 minutes (at 00, 20 and 40 mins past the hour) until 6.40pm to whisk you to the show. Our buses will leave from the Wheatsheaf, close to the Stadium of Light for your journey home.

A single fare on the X56 is £4, with a return costing only £5 or you can buy our Spice Girls DaySaver for £6 on the Go North East app, which will cover you on all Go North East buses.

Go North East adult and student tickets can be used on this service, but concessionary passes and Network One tickets won't be valid.

Getting there

All our buses will run on their usual routes before the concert and will continue to stop on Kier Hardie Way or at the Wheatsheaf in Sunderland. Our 9, 20, 35A and 56 buses all stop on Kier Hardie Way or at the Wheatsheaf, which are only a short walk from the entry areas to the Stadium of Light.

Our 2, 2A, 38C, 39, 60, 78 and 78A buses all stop in Sunderland City Centre, where you can change onto a bus serving the Stadium of Light or walk across the Monkwearmouth Bridge.
