Go North East has your Christmas and New Year travel needs wrapped up

Go North East, the region's largest bus company, has wrapped up your Christmas and New Year travel needs, following the announcement of their Christmas timetable information.

The company has revealed that their buses will run to normal timetables all the way up to and including Monday 23 December.

Buses will also run throughout the Christmas and New Year period, apart from Christmas Day and New Year's Day, with special services running on Boxing Day, so you can hit the sales or visit family and friends.

Travelling from A to B across the North East is easy thanks to the bus operator's app, as it is equipped with a journey planner, real-time bus information and mobile tickets.

Day tickets start at just £5.30 and weekly travel from £20, with cheaper tickets available in Go Local Saver Zones.

So, whether you are commuting to and from work, or you are a last-minute Christmas shopper looking for that special gift, you can hop on board with Go North East this festive season.
